Dear People of God at St. Martin's Church,

This past year has included both hopeful events such as calling a new shared Rector, and difficult ones like the ongoing stresses imposed by the pandemic. In challenging times, we tend to peer inward to our own concerns of living. Therefore, now is a great time to remind ourselves how thankful we are to have our church family to gather around us. People have been reaching out online and by phone to each other, and small groups are meeting in person each week at both St. Martin's and Christ Church. Ministry continues in these and many other ways:

Maggie at St. Martin's and Nancy at Christ Church are in the office connecting members to each other and to the services online and in person.

Sherrill at St. Martin's and Charles at Christ Church are busily repairing and maintaining the churches and grounds for our limited worship, meetings, and guests.

Our worship and formation practices continue with the installation of live streaming equipment to support online services, Zoom Sunday School with Deb Parker, and video messages from Pastor Veronika.

Outreach team members are still collecting items and funds for those who need help.

Pastoral care continues by phone, email and Zoom, and we are all praying for each other during Evening Prayer and Noonday prayer services.

As we continue to grow together as one body of Christ, we hope that you will consider your pledge this year as a vital part in keeping us healthy for the coming year. We know it is an unusual time, and many are finding it hard to plan for the future, yet we are people of hope who can turn to God for strength and support during this adversity. The church of God in every age has had to change and to adapt to new circumstances. Your support makes our churches strong and able to do this.

Knowing that each of us is given gifts from God that we must determine how to share, we ask you to prayerfully consider your pledge for 2021. Whatever is decided, your gift is appreciated and will be used to support each other in the coming year. Returning the enclosed pledge card by November 22nd will help your Vestry create the budget for 2021. With a solid financial plan, our church will be able to focus more intently on serving the needs of this parish, our community, and the world. Thank you!

In Christ's Peace,

Sandy Reinhardt
